

New and Unusual Vegetables with John Bagnasco

SPEAKER

- Gives gardening talks and presentations around the country. Recent presentations have been at University of Illinois, Lincoln University and the University of Alaska. Also trade shows, garden clubs and flower shows like the San Francisco Flower Show, Heirloom Exposition and the Northwest Flower Show.

WRITER

- Books - Plants for the Home Vol. 1, Planting Designs for Cacti and Succulents. Success with Succulents published in Dec, 2017. Now working on the first ever book written about polyantha roses.
- Newsletter – weekly newsletter for Garden America Radio Show
- Magazine articles for gardening publications and host of Essential Guide to Roses DVD.

CURRENT PROJECTS

- Co-chair of the Save the Roses! Organization – concerned with worldwide preservation of the genetics of roses varieties in danger of extinction
- Partnered with former Seed Savers Exchange member, Aaron Whaley, to introduce new line of retail packets of Flower and Vegetable Seeds.
- Current host of nationally syndicated Garden America Radio Show

John will have copies of his book available for purchase as well as seed packets, so remember to bring some extra cash!